

WO KEM

Pure groove, raw energy, deep connection.

FULL BIO

Wo Kem is an Andalusian DJ and collector based in Madrid who discovered electronic music at 17 and has since immersed himself in Europe's most exciting dancefloors.

As a vinyl collector and selector, he has shaped a unique style where club-driven house intersects with Detroit techno, acid, 80s disco, new beat, breaks and funk. His sets are defined by musical storytelling and the warm, raw energy of vinyl, delivering journeys crafted for the dancefloor.

With more than six years of experience, he has played across Madrid's club circuit, performed in cities such as Sevilla, Barcelona, Murcia and Tenerife, and expanded internationally with gigs in Rabat, Lyon and Hamburg.

Wo Kem is also the founder and promoter of Kommune Club and Recreo Madrid, two collectives that reflect his dedication to the underground scene and his drive to foster independent electronic projects in the Spanish capital.

"Being a DJ is both a craft and an art, and those who practice it must do so with professionalism and respect."
